After you log in – and accept the terms of use, if applicable – you will be directed to the first restricted access page created and authorized for your membership level. If there are no restricted access pages authorized for your membership level, the home page will be displayed.

A message will appear in the bottom right corner if you have unpaid invoices or incomplete registrations, or are lapsed, overdue, or within a week of your renewal date.

Balance due message

What you see and what you can do after logging in may depend on whether you're a member, and if so, your membership level and membership status.

If you have any overdue payments or open invoices, you will be directed to the Invoices and payments tab in your member profile. If your membership renewal date has passed, you will be directed to the Profile page where you can renew your membership.

Remembering login information

To avoid having to enter your email and password every time you log in, check the Remember me option before clicking the Login button. The next time you access your Wild Apricot site, you'll be automatically logged in.

Login troubleshooting

I reset my password but I did not receive any email? If you don't receive the password reset email, you should check your email spam folder - make sure to white list this email so that future emails will go to your inbox

When I click on the link in the email, it does not work; it says that it is expired? For security reasons, the password reset link is only valid for 24 hours. After this you will need to use the Forgot password link again.
